The Nourishment The source of nourishment. Awareness of danger brings good fortune. It furthers one to cross the great water. Turning away from the path. To remain persevering brings good fortune. One should not cross the great water. Turning to the summit for provision of nourishment brings good fortune. Spying about with sharp eyes like a tiger with insatiable craving. No blame. Turning away from nourishment. Perseverance brings mis-fortune. Do not act thus for ten years. Nothing serves to further. Turning to the summit for nourishment, deviating from the part to seek nourishment from the hill. Continuing to do this drings misfortune. You let your magic tortoise go, and look at me with the corners of your mouth drooping. Misfortune.
